

Just wanted to comment on how great the current law is. I was getting up to 10 phone calls a day before I signed the release. It is very disturbing to get call during dinner and other family time. I never bought anything from a tele-marketer so see no reason to have these calls.